WEBINAR:

AMR One Health in Action

WOAH activity

ANIMUSE: antimicrobial usage in animals in the Asia and the Pacific

Dr Tikiri Priyantha

Technical Officer Antimicrobial Resistance, WOAH SRR-SEA

Research efforts

Factors associated with use of important drugs for humans in companion animals in Japan

Professor Kohei Makita

WOAH Collaborating Centre for Food Safety, Rakuno Gakuen University, Japan and Chair of FAVA Standing Committee on Pharmaceutical Stewardship, Japan

Outreach of prudent use of antimicrobials by companion animal clinics in Bangladesh

Dr Md. Saddam Hossain

Birds and Pet Animal Clinic.

Capacity building efforts

Antimicrobial stewardship in Indonesian aquaculture practices: veterinarians & One Health approaches

Professor Huda Shalahudin Darusman

School of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, IPB University, Bogor, Indonesia

AMR Capacity Building projects in Asia and the Pacific: lessons from the Fleming Fund and beyond

Professor James Gilkerson

Asia-Pacific Centre for Animal Health, Melbourne Veterinary School, Faculty of Science, The University of Melbourne, Australia

World AMR Awareness Week (WAAW) is an annual international campaign. Its purpose is to improve understanding of antimicrobial resistance (AMR) and encourage best practices among the public, policymakers, healthcare workers, veterinarians, farmers, and environmental sectors. The webinar aims to promote AMR awareness and collaborative action across Asia and the Pacific.

1-3 PM BKK
19 November 2026

Online; register here

Veterinarians and general public

Federation of Asian Veterinary Associations • 1978 •

WOAH