

AFRICAN HORSE SICKNESS SIGNS TO WATCH FOR

Signs vary with species as well as with forms of this disease, but these images show the most common signs.

Swelling around the eyes will make the head look swollen

Reddened eyes

Difficulty breathing and frothy discharge from the nose

Contact your vet or animal health worker if your donkey, horse or pony looks sick; they can take a sample and test for this disease