

World Organisation
for Animal Health
Founded as OIE

Add logo of your organisation

PVS Pathway and One Health tools for efficient Veterinary Services

22 – 24 March 2023, Bangkok, Thailand

Rabies

KINLEY CHODEN

SRR SEA

ARES: Background

Subject matter

- Need to revise
- WOAHA Consultancy – Nossal Institute of Global health
- ASEAN Technical working group

CORE GROUP

---

Composition:

- ASEAN Lead Country for Rabies (Indonesia and Vietnam)
- WHO WPRO/SEARO
- FAORAP
- WOAHSRR-SEA
- Interested ASEAN Member States (ASWGL – Myanmar, Malaysia, Singapore, AHC II – Indonesia, Thailand, Vietnam)

TOR

- support Consultants to revise ARES in line with “Zero by 30”
- support Consultants in reviewing the status of national rabies plans and the ground realities of rabies prevention and control programs across ASEAN members, with the results being utilized to update ARES.
- support consultants to facilitate a workshop with ASEAN members
- provide feedback and comments on draft work plan, draft strategy and other reports shared by the Consultants either electronically or during virtual meetings.

TIMELINE and PROGRESS

2022 May to July

EOI Launched

2022 September

Consultant hired and inception meeting conducted

2022 October -
December

Review AMS's national rabies situation and control programmes and prepare report with recommendations

2023 January

Regional Virtual consultation workshop

TIMELINE (expected)

2023 April

First draft of updated
ARES

2023 May

ASEAN Workshop to revise ARES

2023 June

Finalized ARES

CAMBODIA National Rabies Strategy

---

Objective

- to support selected countries to develop/revise their National Rabies Control Strategy in line with “Zero by 30” and revised ARES

Scope

- Review the national rabies situation
- Support development/ revision of National Rabies Control Strategy of the selected countries in the Southeast Asia region
- Facilitate a consultative meetings/ workshop to get inputs from stakeholders in the revision/ development of National Rabies Control Strategy,

Dr Amy Nicole Lewis BVSc MRCVS hired as Independent Consultant for WOAHA

TECHNICAL CORE GROUP

---

Composition:

- Representatives from
- GDAPH, MAFF
- CCDC, MOH
- SHD, MOYES
- RUA
- WHO and FAO
- IPC, CDC, DTRA, GGIZ, MR
- Four paws, ARC, etc...

TOR

- To support Consultants in reviewing the status of national rabies plans and the ground realities of rabies prevention and control programs,
- Support consultants to facilitate a workshop, provide inputs for the development of national rabies strategy,
- To provide feedback and comments on draft work plan, draft strategy and other reports shared by the Consultant either electronically or during virtual meetings.

TIMELINE and Progress

2022 September

Inception and Coordination

2022 November

Study rabies situation:
Consultations

Draft outline of the National Rabies Strategy

2022 December

Facilitate a workshop
with the resource
groups/experts and
consultations

2023 February

Develop the first draft of the national strategy

2023 March - April

Consultations
Finalize the National
Rabies Control Strategy

THANK YOU

---

Twitter

@WOAH\_Asia

Facebook

facebook.com/worldanimalhealth

YouTube

youtube.com/c/WorldAnimalHealth

Subscribe to our newsletter

bulletin.woah.org

This event is supported by the Australian Government

