

Prof. Nayana Wijayawardhane

Nayana Wijayawardhane is a Professor in Veterinary Clinical Sciences at University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka. She obtained her PhD from Auburn University, USA in 2007. She served as the local coordinator of the OIE Twinning Programme between University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka and Massey University, New Zealand and led the BVSc curriculum revision in 2018. She currently chairs the Accreditation Committee of her Vet School aiming for the AVBC accreditation. She serves in the AAVMC's Council on International Veterinary Medical Education (CIVME) as the Regional Member representing Asia, and an Editorial board member of the RCVS Knowledge. She is involved in collaborative research between national and international universities. She was the Chief grantee- MSD Animal Health CIVME Antimicrobial Stewardship Grant, 2022.